

Greenville Chorale Young Artist

The Greenville Chorale, to encourage young and talented singers in the choral art, is sponsoring this project as a community outreach effort.

The purpose of the Chorale Young Artist Program is:

1. To encourage those young singers with outstanding ability and interest, to pursue the choral art with experience singing with adult voices in performances of great choral-orchestral music, and
2. to enhance the choral leadership of those young singers in their ongoing high school choral activities.

Greenville Chorale Young Artist expectations:

- ❖ Attend all Chorale rehearsals every Monday evening from 7:30 – 9:30 pm, Harper Hall, Furman University.
- ❖ Young Artists are expected to practice on their own time those portions of they music they find difficult to learn.
- ❖ Personal illness or school conflict will be the only acceptable reasons for any absence from the rehearsal schedule. A maximum of two rehearsal absences (for any reason) is allowed.

There is NO FINANCIAL obligation on the part of the high school singers selected as a Chorale Young Artists. There are a limited number of Young Artist positions available.

A veteran member of the Chorale will be assigned to each Chorale Young Artist to serve as a mentor to assist the young singer.

Potential Chorale Young Artists should mail the included application to AC Rodwell, PO Box 16851, Greenville, SC 29606 or e-mail ac@greenvillechorale.com. A letter of recommendation must be included with the application.

Auditions are held in Harper Hall at Furman University.

For more information, please contact the Chorale office at 235-1101 or e-mail ac@greenvillechorale.com.

We look forward to hearing from you!
